

Angela Andrews

Director, NCSL Legislative Staff
Services Program

BIOGRAPHY

Angela Andrews is the group director for NCSL's Legislative Staff Services Program. She leads a team whose core focus is to provide high-quality programs, services and resources to legislative staff (of which there are more than 25,000 working in America's state legislatures). She serves as the liaison to the Legislative Staff Coordinating Committee, a staff advisory group to NCSL's Executive Committee. She develops and executes professional development opportunities for legislative staff, including the Legislative Staff Management Institute and NCSL's new Legislative Staff Certificate program, and coordinates in-state training for legislative staff. In addition, she serves as NCSL's co-liaison to the National Legislative Services and Security Association.

Angela has worked in or for legislatures for almost 20 years. Prior to joining NCSL in 2008, she served as a legislative aide in the Massachusetts House of Representatives and in the United States Senate. She received her master's in public administration from Suffolk University in Boston.
