

Stacy Householder

Director, NCSL Leadership and International Programs

BIOGRAPHY

Stacy Householder is the director of Leadership and International Programs at NCSL. She has been with NCSL since 2008 and her responsibilities include overseeing program content development for legislative leaders, creating and providing training for legislators, communicating with and providing services for legislative leaders and overseeing NCSL's international partnerships and programs. She has spoken to and trained national and international audiences on a variety of professional development issues specific to legislatures. Prior to joining NCSL, Stacy got a taste of the world of legislatures by working in the Wisconsin Senate. She holds her bachelor's degree in political science and international affairs, plus a master's degree in public administration, all from the University of Colorado.
