

Suzanne Shepard McGarry

Suzanne Shepard McGarry is the Resource Development Consultant for Pacific Youth Foundation serving Boys and Girls Club organizations with fundraising training, planning and implementation. She has over fifteen years experience in the nonprofit sector, is a Certified Fundraising Executive (CFRE) as recognized by the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) and has a Masters in Business Administration with a focus on non-profit management.

Based in Los Angeles County, she loves to travel (looking forward to doing that again!) and create adventure with her two school aged children.
