

Tamara Bosnyák

Director of Operations at Boys and Girls Clubs of Hungary / ESL Specialist

With over 20 years of experience in the field of education, Tamara is the Director of Operations at BGC Hungary, with overall responsibility for all aspects of the day to day running of the company.

Tamara qualified as a teacher specializing in TEFL in 1999 at the Berzsényi Dániel College in Hungary. She then went on to graduate from the Budapest Business School with a degree in Marketing and Communication. She quickly put her studies into practice and, in 2005, started her own English School for young learners. In 2013, she joined BGC Hungary as the Head of Education and her passion for the program, enthusiasm and professional knowledge quickly led to the rapid success and expansion of the company. As a result, in 2019, she was appointed Director of Operations.

Over the years, Tamara has streamlined workflows and increased efficiency in key areas of the company and is especially effective at recruiting and training new teachers. Her daily tasks include responding to and networking with partners and clients, developing curricular content and ensuring teachers' professional development and satisfaction. Over the past 20 years, she has conducted several teacher training courses and workshops, focusing on both CLIL and the implementation of language acquisition methodology for young learners. Her enthusiasm and professional knowledge enable her to lead BGC Hungary to the highest level.

Tamara is also a proud mother of two and in her free time enjoys hiking, reading, drawing and running.
